ONE WAY TO HAPPINESS. WHEN WEARING A WATCH. TO DRESS LITTLE MEN. MEANING OF "PIN MONEY."

WHEN WEARING A WATCH. Inside the Collar Is the Latest Place of Concealment, as Tapes or Buttons Are Not in the Way.

That watches should be get-at-able-that , worn in a place where coars, buttons and tapes need not be undone nor pulled asunder to probe them from some remote region-has long been the desideratum of women, and now that the problem is solved many will rejoice. The neck, some clever one has thought, is quite as secure a hiding place for a watch as the waist. It is also worn more uncovered in these days of open oat fronts, and bodices buttoned up below the chest. Many watches, therefore, are now simply dropped down under the stock collar, and that they may not fall too far below it they are attached to a short, heavy gold chain, perhaps five or six inches long, which at its other end has hung some heavy trinket. This can be grabbed in an instant, without fuss or bother, and the watch pulled out to do its service. It can then also be dropped back again without in the least disarranging the toilet. Moreover, the effect produced by a watch worn in this way is very decorative to the costume, the chain holding it giving as it hangs over the collar much the same effect as do the neck danglers which are now worn so attractively. In the way of ornaments to hang on these chains enameled mummies seem to be the leading novelty. They are often curious. always interesting, while those that conceal a penell are useful as well. It is not regarded as being at all outre to wear them very large, although smaller ones are also seen. They must, however, be sufficiently heavy to balance the watch and prevent its fallies too far below the collar. Many of from Egypt, and are marvels of fine work-manship. When it is the sarcophagus which manship. is outwardly represented, it may usually be taken for granted that by some secret spring it will open and reveal within an imitation of a swathed mummy.

CHICAGO HOUSEBOAT TOUR. Group of Well-Known Club Women Will Enjoy a Novel Outing on the Illinois River Soon.

A group of Chicago women will enjoy novel outing this summer in the form of t houseboat tour on the Illinois River. The tourists start early in July for the first trip. The plan was suggested by a former symmastic director of the Chicaso Woman's Athletic Club. The boat is 41 by 15 feet in size, and includes accommodations sufficient to make it an exceedingly comfortable little clubhouse. There are no upper berths in staterooms, so that the best ventilation is secured, and there is even a dark room for photographers. This form of amusement, already much practiced in Europe and the eastern part of this country, is a compara-

IS BEAUTY SLEEP NECESSARY? Preponderance of Evidence Is on the Side of the Old Theory, Which Favors a Daytime Nap.

Women nowadays count that day lost whose low descending sun doesn't see the advancement of some new theory that is the very antithesis of the thing they had comingly and more easily dressed is the always believed to be true. In illustration, a little chap in his linen trousers and kilt young physician rushed into print recently to say that the brain worker and the person of leisure do not need much sleep; that five or six hours is all sufficient for these classes and that only a dolt sleeps nine or

Beauty sleep is pronounced all nonsense by this authority, and too much repose de-clared a fruitful source of ill health. Who shall decide when doctors disagree? This is the agonized thought of the woman who has carefully coddled herself into tak-ing the detested afternoon nap only to learn at this late day that 'tis all in vain, and that beauty and intellect are gained by staying awake just as many hours out of the twenty-four as it is possible to keep the eyes open.

The preponderance of evidence is on the side of the old-fashioned theory, for all the great beauties are said also to have been great sleepers, and the belles of to-day take extraordinary care of themselves. Therefore, the daytime nap won't be abolished for one more season, at least, that's sure. CONFECTIONER'S ART IS WOMANLY

Many Women Have Succeded in London, Where There Is a Candy Kitchen School. A London confectioner's establishment which is run entirely by women has become so great a success that its kitchen has of necessity been partially converted into a school, where women anxious to learn ar taught the confectioner's art. At the neat marble slabs women of apparently good education are busy with dainty confec-tions. Some of these pupils are ambitious to become managers of similar establish-ments of their own. The concern in question is carried on in connection with a res taurant and tearoom, and since tearooms HENRY SHAW COUNCIL, NO. 339, NA-the such establishments are coming in increas-ing numbers to this confectionery school. One course in which only two pupils can be taken at a time includes the making of cakes, sweets, ices, bookkeeping and sho management. All the latest inventions of the confectioner's art are mastered by these women as readily as they appear, for they find it necessary in this, as in every field of work, to keep abreast of the times.

THOSE HORRID ANTS. Different Species of the Insects Require Different Poisons, but Pyrethrum Is Effective.

For the several species of ants that frequent pantries and other places in the house nothing is more effective than pyrethrum, known also as buhach and insect powder. As the killing property of this naterial is a volatile oil, the supply should be kept in an air-tight box, and frequently dusted along the runways and in places frequented by these insects. For col ants in lawns and sidewalks, get a small quantity of bisulphide of carbon, a very platile, foul-smelling liquid as clear as water, with fumes heavier than air, and pour into the runways. If the entrance to the nest is large, says Good Housekeeping. saturate a small piece of cotton and thrust it into the hole and close the opening. Have no lights of any kind, not even a cigar or pipe, around when using the bisulphide of carbon, as its fumes are explosive. The fumes are deadly poison to animal life, but a reasonable amount can be inhaled without injury to persons. ACCURATE VEGETABLE TABLE. This Schedule Tells Just How Long to Cook the Vegetables Which Complete the Summer Menu.

Bake potatoes, 30 to 45 minutes. Steam potatoes, 20 to 40 minutes Boil potatoes (in their skins), 20 to 30 minutes. Boil potatoes (pared), 25 to 45 minutes. Asparagus (young), 15 to 30 minutes. Beets (young), 45 minutes. Corn (green), 12 to 20 minutes. Cauliflower. 20 to 49 minutes. Cabbage (young), 35 to 60 minutes. Celery, 20 to 30 minutes.

Carrots, 1 to 2 hours. Lima or shell beans. 45 minutes to 1% ours. Onlons, 30 to 60 minutes. Oyster plant, 45 to 60 minutes. Pease, 20 to 60 minutes. Parsnips (young), 30 to 45 minutes Spinach, 20 to 60 minutes. String beans, 30 to 60 minutes Summer squash, 20 to 60 minutes. Turnips (young), 45 minutes. Tomatoes (stewed), 45 to 60 minutes. LONGEVITY OF LADIES' MAIDS. surance Records Show That They Live Longer Than Clergymen,

Who Rank Next in List. A study of the death rate will enable one to foretell with amazing accuracy just how long a man in any occupation or environ-ment may expect to live. The collection of vital statistics in recent years has reduced this form of prophecy to an exact science.

The most complete tables of this kind are kept by the life insurance companies. These tables are built up on the vital statistics of cities and villages, and show the effect of every occupation upon human life.

Ladies' maids have a remarkable hold on life, as out of every thousand but eight die between the ages of 25 and 65 years. This is lower even than the rate for the most favored clergymen, who rank next in the list. Lawyers rank next, and after them grooms and then physicians. The death rate for the period between 25 and 80 years is 12.6 for grooms and 12.9 for physicians.

TO DRESS LITTLE MEN. Kilt Trousers" Add a Smart Summe Effect to Kilts, as the Cloth Is Then Held in Shape.

Few mothers understand how to cor-ectly dress a boy of from 2 to 4 years of age. They either put him in trougers and make him look like a little monkey or they put petticoats galore under his kilts; in fact, some mothers appear to think that the more "flare" they give to the kilts the prettier they are. After pins became cheap and common, womankind gradually came to spend their allow-ance on other vanities, but the old name "pin money" remained in use. DE RESZKE'S HUMOR CHANGED. How the Singer Generously Entertained an Old Station Agent

While Awaiting a Train.

On a recent trip in France, Jean de Reszke was forced to wait at a little railroad function town for his train. He was not in the best of humor, and was, there-fore, not particularly pleased when the old stationmaster recognized him as the great artist and opened up a conversation. "Good evening, Mr. de Reszke," he began in a confidential tone. "I recognized you from the pictures in the papers. "Yes," continued the old man, "and I thought I would ask you if it was true that you earned such piles of money. Perhaps you earn twice as much as I do." "How much do you earn?" asked De Reszke. "Eighteen francs a week, all the year round," replied the old man. De Reszke swelled out his chest and sang "Do, re, mi, fa, sol, la, si, do," letting out the high C with the usual vigor. Then turning to the agent, who had been listening intently, he said, "There, my friend, are your whole year's wages."

MIDSUMMER TETE-A-TETE. The man whose stories have a realistic flavor is not a sticker for truth. He who cannot talk glibly about his own affairs will never shine as a conversationworn "kilt trousers," which are made different from the knee breeches. They are wider and have no pockets. It would be difficult to have the kilts keep their plaits long if the trousers had pockets, for the temptation to thrust the hands into them

The boy who, in his mother's opinion, is just like his father, is not usually possessed of an angelic disposition. The person who loves work seldom accomplishes as much as he who dislikes it. The pretty sayings of the ardest lover are often composed and committed to mem-ory hours before they are uttered. Victor Hugo says two smiles that ap-Polite people are those who listen to us while we talk on subjects in which they have no earthly interest.

FASHION'S ODDITIES.

Make yourself worthy of true friendship and lasting respect and worthy love; and, if any of these emotions seem to prove ephemeral, remember they were not the realities—the real ones will come to you, since you are wortay.

MEANING OF "PIN MONEY." Familiar Expression Originally Re ferred to the Actual Sum Spent By "My Lady" for Pins,

"Pin money" now means the allowance of money for a woman's own personal expend iture, but originally it meant literally the actual sum spent on pins. It is almost impossible to think of any stage in the history of womankind when the pin was not one of the mainstays of her existence, but until about the end of the Seventeenth Century an article, more resembling a wooden skewer than anything else, was all that could be obtained. vented, but the maker was allowed to sell them openly only on January 1 and 2, so that court ladies and fashjonable dames alike were obliged to buy a large store on those days, says the Gentlewoman. So extremely important was this yearly pur-

A boa of chiffon lilles, with touches of green velvet for leaves, displayed in a Lon-don shop, is a perfect little work of art. A lovely hat for a garden party is of ecru straw, the brim being filled with exquisitely colored blue forget-me-nots and a long white estrich plume sweeping over the
